

FREE ENERGY UPGRADES FOR BOSTON RESIDENTS

RENEW BOSTON COVERS THE COST OF MANY COMMON HOME ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS

Mayor Thomas M. Menino’s Renew Boston initiative has partnered with NSTAR and National Grid to provide qualifying Bostonians with no-cost home energy efficiency improvements. Renew Boston offers City residents and landlords a low-hassle way to lower their energy bills, increase the value of their homes and reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Who is eligible?

Income-eligible Boston residents living in a single family home or a multi-family building with up to four units are eligible for free Renew Boston services. Landlords serving income-eligible tenants can also take advantage of Renew Boston services to improve the energy performance of their properties. Other eligibility criteria include:

- Active interest in weatherization improvements
- Renters have landlord approval for any efficiency improvements installed in the home, and
- Resident income falls between 60 and 120 percent of State Median Income (see table below)

Contact Renew Boston for details on other conditions and restrictions that may apply.

What efficiency services are available?

Renew Boston and its partners will provide participating residents with a range of no-cost efficiency services including a comprehensive home energy assessment and up to $3,500 in insulation and air sealing. Other free energy efficient products may be available depending on the results of the home energy assessment.

How do I apply?

Contact Renew Boston today to discuss your home’s energy performance with a Renew Boston representative. Call 617-635-SAVE (7283) to start saving energy and money. Boston residents who are interested in improving their home energy performance, but are unsure if they meet the program income guidelines can contact Renew Boston to discuss their eligibility.
